RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On June 19, 2018, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that he suffered a left shoulder injury as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine he received on November 2, 2016. Petition at 2-3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On May 14, 2019, respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. Specifically, respondent states that petitioner’s injury is consistent with a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) and that there is not a preponderance of the medical evidence that petitioner's SIRVA was due to a factor unrelated to the vaccination Id. at 4. Respondent further agrees that petitioner suffered the sequela of his injury for more than six months and that petitioner has met the statutory requirements for entitlement to compensation. Id.

¹ The undersigned intends to post this ruling on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website. This means the ruling will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access. Because this unpublished ruling contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, undersigned is required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services).

In view of respondent's position and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
